CHAPTER VII.

OF THE AID WHICH MAY BE FURNISHED BY CIVIL AUTHORITIES TO EXPEDITE THE MARCH OF MILITARY FORCES, AND OF COMPENSATION TO INDIVIDUALS FOR DAMAGE CAUSED BY THE TROOPS ON SUCH OCCASIONS.

40. When military bodies, exceeding in number two hundred (200) of infantry, or one hundred (100) of cavalry, shall have occasion to march through a "territory", and also, if the number be smaller, provided they will require aid from the local authority, the commanding officer shall give timely notice to each [District Magistrate] through whose jurisdiction he will pass, specifying the probable time of his arrival, the extent of the corps, and the nature of the aid (if any) which will be required.

41. First.—If it be required, the [District] Magistrate shall direct his establishment to be in readiness to procure guides, and such supplies of provisions as the country may furnish, and such conveyance for passing rivers or ghatas, or any peculiarly difficult places, as is professionally provided by the inhabitants for such purposes.

Second.—Provisions and conveyance supplied as above mentioned to individuals shall be paid for by them at the time and at the current rate of the place, the guides and conveyance for public property shall be paid for at the same rate by the Collector of the district, according to a certificate which the commanding officer is to grant, denoting the services performed; and the Collector is to insert the amount so disbursed at the foot of his treasury-account, in explanation of his treasury-balance as prescribed for similar cases.

1 Ss. 40 to 43 of Bom. Reg. 22 of 1827 were declared, by the Laws Local Extent Act, 1874 (15 of 1874), s. 5, and Sch. 2 as amended by Act 13 of 1889, to be in force in the whole of the State of Bombay, except as regards the Scheduled Districts, i.e., the villages belonging to the following Mehsuw Chiefs:—

2 The word "Brinde" was deleted by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

3 "District Magistrate" was substituted for "Magistrate" by the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1890 (Bom. 3 of 1890), Schedule B. This Schedule is printed as an Appendix to the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1904 (Bom. 1 of 1904).

4 "District" was substituted for "local", ibid.
42. First.—When emergent occasions require the immediate march of troops on emergent and more extensive aid towards it than is allowed by the preceding section, is occasions aid necessary, the [District] Magistrate may resort to impressment under the following rules, being careful to define the nature of the employment for which the impressment is made and the period it is to continue.

Second.—The [District] Magistrate's authority for acting as in the preceding sections shall be either an order from the [Central Government] or a letter from the commanding officer declaring his inability to proceed without the [District] Magistrate's aid, and fully explaining the circumstances which render the movement of paramount importance to the general inconvenience occasioned by impressment, or receipt of which the [District Magistrate] will act at discretion.

Third.—Remuneration for services or supplies procured by impressment is to be determined by the [District Magistrate] on a liberal scale, and paid according to the principles of clause second, section 41, of this Regulation, namely, individuals are to pay for that which is personal accommodation, and the Collector is to defray the charges incurred for the public service under the above-quoted rules.

Fourth.—Whenever impressment shall take place by virtue of this section, the [District Magistrate] shall, within ten (10) days, report the fact, with the cause of impressment, and the extent of impressment, and the rates of remuneration allowed to the [Central Government].

43. First.—When damage is occasioned to individuals by the march or encampment of troops, the commanding officer shall, on application by the sufferer, furnish him with a certificate of the nature, extent and cause thereof.

Second.—The certificate mentioned in the preceding clause shall, if presented to the Collector or any of his officers holding charge of a district within ten (10) days from its date, entitle the sufferer to compensation for loss occasioned by such movements or positions of the troops as are bona fide of a military nature.

Third.—On a demand being made by virtue of this section to the Collector, he shall inquire into its merits, and, if satisfied that it is just, shall apply to the [Central Government] for permission to pay it; if the Collector thinks the demand is not just, or if the [Central Government] withhold permission to pay it, the complainant may bring the case to decision according to the process of civil law by instituting a suit against the [Central Government].

[Requisitions for Military aid by Civil Authorities; Spirituous Liquors.]
